

Sunday, November 22, 2015 - Hope Fellowship Church
Sermon Discussion Notes, Pastor Peter Slofstra

Laughter Sermon Series: "Who Will Have the Last Laugh?"

Esther 7:10, Revelation 20:10

Q. What is poetic justice?

A. The kind of justice that makes all things right by means of an _____
_____ that sees victims
_____ and villains _____ by their own
_____.

The second best book in the Bible about God's poetic justice is _____

The best book in the Bible about God's poetic justice is _____

In the story of Esther, the guilty died and the innocent lived. In the story of Jesus, the innocent one died and the guilty ones live, answering today's question:

Q. Who will have the last laugh?

A. _____!

"Poetic justice would be a jest if it were not an image of the divine"

- John Dennis, 1698